Tamara is on the school bus and her seat partner brings out their favorite toy from home. The bus rules say not to bring toys onto the bus.

Older children (7+)

Tamara is on the school bus and her seat partner brings out their sticker book from home. The bus rules say not to bring precious things onto the bus especially when they make a mess.

Older children still (10)

Tamara is on the school bus and her seat partner brings out their iPhone from home. The bus rules iPhone must be used with headphones. Her seatmate is playing without headphones and it's frustrating.

Do you play with the toy? What things might you say? Why would you play and why would you not play? What would you do? What might you decide to not do?
